GREAT GETAWAYS

LOGAN, UTAH

Make your escape to Logan, Utah, a peaceful place just 90 minutes north of Salt Lake City. Our close and easy access to the national forest is unparalleled. You can experience great theatre and the great outdoors all within a 10-minute drive. Whatever your interests, Logan offers affordable family fun to adventurers of all ages.

Amenities and nearby activities:

- Our vibrant summer arts scene is in full swing in June with free concerts Monday through Friday at the historic Tabernacle, and the Lyric Repertory Theatre season features a musical, mystery, drama and comedy. July 6-Aug. 6, 150 performers from America's greatest stages unite to perform Porgy and Bess, Show Boat, Ragtime and Puccini's Trilogy in Logan's stunning 1923 Ellen Eccles Theatre. Backstage tours, concerts, academy workshops, breakfasts with the stars and more are part of Utah Festival Opera and Musical Theatre's exciting season.
- Step back in time at the American West Heritage Center, a 160-acre living-history museum. Experience the Old West as you interact with guides in period costume who encourage you to participate in hands-on activities with mountain men, turn-of-the-century farmers and pioneers. Write with a quill pen, start a fire with flint and steel, make a rag doll and more. Be sure to see the buffalo and there are pony and train rides too.
- Mountain bike, canoe, fish, bird watch, hike, horseback ride and rock climb in the national forest, just a few minutes from downtown. Logan Canyon National Scenic Byway boasts 43 miles of uncrowded scenery with dramatic limestone cliffs, wildflowers and the Logan River all on the way to the breathtaking blue waters of Bear Lake. Rent horses or off-road side by side vehicles (RZR) at Beaver Creek Lodge.
- Take the self-guided Cache Valley Food Tour and sample famous cheeses, chocolates, coffee, cookies, honey, fruit and ice creams.
- The city of Logan is home to Utah State University, a dozen art galleries and specialty shops, great examples of early Mormon pioneer architecture, and affordable restaurants and hotels.
- Keep in mind we're just 3½ hours from Jackson and Grand Teton National Park and 4½ hours from Yellowstone. Come and explore.

Visit Logan, Utah. We're cool like that.

GRAND JUNCTION, COLORADO

Welcome to Colorado's Wine Country: Grand Junction is a different side of Colorado – a land where you can be exhilarated, mountain bike from a desert trail into any of the 22 wineries, wine and dine next to the Colorado River, and explore the alpine mountaintop of the Grand Mesa and the red rock canyons of Colorado National Monument.

Amenities and nearby activities:

- Wide Open Spaces: With thousands of acres of public land, Grand Junction is the ideal location for all of your outdoor adventures. Bring the ATVs, UTVs, dirt bikes, mountain bikes or road bikes to explore the high desert landscape surrounding the Grand Valley.
- Culinary Destination Paired with Colorado's Wine Country: Generations of farmers have nurtured the orchards and provide harvests spanning the seasons from apricots and cherries in early summer to pears, apples, grapes, plums and the best peaches around in late summer. Lavender fields draw you in, and exquisite restaurants in Downtown Grand Junction serving local cuisine paired with local wine finish your day perfectly.
- Events: July 8-10 Lavender Festival, September 15-18 Colorado Mountain Winefest, October 1 Tour of the Moon Cycling Classic.
- Getting Here: Just over a four-hour drive from Salt Lake City, a beautiful train ride on Amtrak, or an easy one-hour direct flight from the Salt Lake City International Airport, Grand Junction is a destination easily reached from anywhere in Utah.
- So come, stay awhile and enjoy the dramatic difference of Grand Junction – Colorado's Wine Country.
